

Fury Adds Jimmy Andersson as Assistant Hockey Director

The Chicago Fury is proud to welcome new Fury Assistant Hockey Director and Head Coach of the Fury '99 team, Jimmy Andersson.

We are excited to have Jimmy and the wealth of experience he brings. He is just what the Fury needs to strengthen our program at the young levels. We want players of all ages to come play and train here, and our goal is to have top teams at EVERY age level. Having Jimmy train and develop our young Fury players is absolutely the best thing for our program and we are fortunate to have him join our team. Jimmy will also serve as the assistant coach for the 96 team. To contact Coach Andersson, email him at jandersson21@hotmail.com

