

Team Gets Bigger as Fury Adds to Leadership

For Immediate Release

June 26, 2008 Orland Park, IL

The Chicago Fury Tier I Hockey Club is about to embark on their second season as members of the Midwest elite Hockey League and the excitement and anticipation could not be higher. With a new season comes new expectations and to help reach those expectations President Marc Kapsalis has added three people to his staff to serve the members of the Chicago Fury.

The Chicago Fury is proud to welcome Erin Malinowski, Cathy Miller and Nick Pollos into three new Director roles for 2008-2009.

Serving as the Director of Administration will be Erin Malinowski. Erin will head up several areas for the club including manager coordination, equipment, jerseys and pro shop questions and raffle tickets. Erin will also contribute in the scheduling of Off-Ice Training with Get Fast Hockey Treadmill, Synthetic Ice sessions and help coordinate volunteer schedules and Fury apparel. "Erin will be the first point of contact in these areas for our members. Her commitment and dedication to the Fury will be priceless as we move forward," says President Marc Kapsalis. Erin can be reached via email at illinoishockey@sbcglobal.net

In addition, Cathy Miller will serve as the Fury's Club Registrar and Ice Scheduler. A role which Cathy has taken on since the early spring. Cathy also will be the first point of contact for payment questions and collections. "Cathy's years of experience in these areas offers the Fury a solid foundation moving into our second season", added Kapsalis. Cathy can be reached via email at cathy@arcticicearena.net

The Fury has also added Nick Pollos to serve as the club's Director of Marketing and Alternate Director to the MWEHL in addition to coaching the Major Midget Team. Nick will oversee the Chicago Fury website, including press releases, Team Updates and Human Interest stories. On the Marketing side, Nick will coordinate tournaments and manage sales and sponsorship efforts. On the hockey side, Nick will serve as Alternate Director for the Fury in regards to MWEHL issues. "From the hockey side to the business side, Nick brings a wealth of knowledge to the members of our club," says Kapsalis. "He is a true asset to our club."

"A big part of becoming successful is communication, marketing and planning. As we build teams of young players that aspire to high levels of hockey, we need to also build a team of dedicated and professional leaders to serve the parents and players of the Fury. I am excited to be serving with this exceptional group of dedicated and service oriented individuals", concluded Kapsalis.
