

March 3, 2009

Fury Adds Nick Pollos as Director of Player Development and Advancement

The Chicago Fury is proud to announce that Nick Pollos will serve as Director of Player Development and Advancement for the upcoming 2009-2010 USA Hockey Season. Chicago Fury Hockey Director Marc Kapsalis made the announcement. As the Chicago Fury prepares for the launch of the USA Hockey HPC Development Program next year, it was vital that the club put someone in place to focus on player development and advancement in regards to Junior A and NCAA Hockey, and Nick Pollos is the perfect choice.

Incorporated in his duties, Nick will work closely with all Fury coaches in providing them with game reviews and player development assistance. In addition, Nick will work with our Bantam and Midget coaches as it pertains to player advancement in order to be well informed and prepared for the steps necessary to reach Junior A and NCAA Hockey programs. Nick's extensive contact list with USHL, NAHL and NCAA scouts will be a benefit to all Fury members. "I am excited to take on this new role with the Fury" Pollos said. "Our club wants to be the best and this is another step in the right direction for us. Stepping away from the coaching side will allow me to focus more on the entire club and offer support to the coaches, players and parents."

Nick will begin his new position with the Fury immediately and be talking with all Fury coaches over the next few weeks.