Green Bay Jr. Gamblers Take Fall Classic 96 Title

The 2009 Chicago Fury 96 Fall Classic went off without a hitch. In all, 10 teams competed for the crown this year with the Championship game coming right down to the wire. The finals saw the Green Bay Jr. Gamblers edge the Chicago Young Americans by a score of 2-0 to capture the crown. Round Robin games wrapped up Sunday morning with a place in the finals being decided on the last game between the Leafs and CYA.

In the Championship game, there was action at both ends of the rink the entire game. Both teams competed very hard and in the end, Green Bay added an empty net goal to seal the deal with the 2-0 victory.

Congratulations to the Green Bay Jr. Gamblers on winning the 2009 Chicago Fury 96 Fall Classic.
