

Detroit Red Wings and Fox Sports Detroit to Raise Money for Derek Zike

April 20, 2009

The Red Wings and Fox Sports Detroit will hold a special auction during Thursday's Game 4 telecast to benefit two young hockey players who suffered spinal cord injuries.

The items being sold are the sticks Kris Draper and Kirk Maltby used in their 1,000th games. They originally were autographed and given to Mike Babcock.

Now Babcock and the players are donating them to help Kyle Cannon, 14 of Oregon, Ohio, who was injured in a tournament near Dayton, and the Chicago Fury's Derek Zike, 17, hurt during a game in Ann Arbor, Michigan.

Both were treated at the University of Michigan C.S. Mott Children's Hospital, where Mike Babcock visited them.

You can bid by calling 313-396-7438 starting at 6:30 p.m. Thursday. Donations also will be accepted, and the first 50 callers who give $50 or more get an autographed photo of Draper and Maltby.
