

The Chicago Fury received Marc Kapsalis' Resignation from the positions of President and Hockey Director. Marc will continue coaching the Chicago Fury 98's through the end of this season. We wish Marc the best in his new business ventures and thank him for his years of service to the Chicago Fury.

Looking to the future, the Chicago Fury is excited to announce the new organization leadership.

Dennis Vaske, current Fury Major Midget Head Coach, will assume the position of Associate Hockey Director. Dennis' focus as Associate Hockey Director will be on the older age levels of the Fury program, including the Bantam and Midget levels, as well as the overall operation of the club. Dennis will remain the Major Midget head coach, and also continue as a USHL scout for Illinois.

Jimmy Andersson, current Fury Squirt Major Head Coach ('99s), will assume the position of Associate Hockey Director. Jimmy's focus as Associate Hockey Director will be on the younger age levels, including Squirt and Peewee, and assist with advancing the Fury Girls' program as well as the overall operation of the club. Jimmy will remain the 99's head coach, and will coordinate the development of the pre-Fury levels.

Darren McClusky, current Fury Minor Midget Head Coach, will assume the position of Assistant Hockey Director. Darren's focus as Assistant Hockey Director will be the advancement of Fury goaltending from Squirt to Midgets and Girls. Darren will remain the Minor Midget head coach. Darren will also be involved in the overall operation of the club.

This staff is working hard to develop the upcoming Spring program and is excited for its imminent announcement...
